The Story

It is Christmas Eve at the Stahlbaums' house, and the family is preparing for their annual Christmas party. The children, Clara and Fritz, are excited at the arrival of their friends and family and the grand celebration. A mysterious guest arrives who shocks Fritz, but Clara knows him to be their uncle Herr Drosselmeyer the toy maker who presents Clara with the best gift of all, the Nutcracker. Fritz grows jealous, snatches the Nutcracker from Clara, and breaks it. Clara is upset, but Herr Drosselmeyer magically repairs her treasured gift. The party picks up with dancing and celebration. As the evening grows late and the children get sleepy, the guests thank the Stahlbaums and bid farewell. Once the family is in bed, Clara sneaks downstairs to check on her Nutcracker and ends up falling asleep under the Christmas tree.

At the stroke of midnight Clara wakes up to find the Christmas tree and toys growing larger as she seems to be shrinking! Suddenly she is surrounded by an army of mice led by the Mouse King. The Nutcracker commands a group of toy soldiers into battle with the mice. The Mouse King traps the Nutcracker, but Clara comes to his rescue. She throws her slipper and hits the Mouse King in the head, allowing the Nutcracker to defeat the Mouse King. The victorious Nutcracker becomes a prince who takes Clara on a magical journey to the Land of Snow. They are welcomed by the Snow Queen, and as the snow continues to fall, snowflakes begin to dance.

Clara continues on her journey and is met by angels who escort her to the Kingdom of the Sweets. There she is greeted by the Sugar Plum Fairy, who hears Clara's story of the Prince's battle with the Mouse King and of her own bravery. The Sugar Plum Fairy rewards her with a celebration of dances of beautiful flowers and every imaginable treat. The festival concludes when everyone comes together to bid Clara farewell.

Entire Ensemble

Betsy Hausburg—Director

Upon graduating cum laude with a BA in Dance from Butler University, Betsy Hausburg got her first professional job as soloist with the Syracuse Ballet Theatre. A year later, she took a job as costumer for the Hartford Ballet Company. When directorship of the company changed, she was rehired as company member and dean of students in charge of the two-year teacher training program. Betsy married and moved to California several years later. She founded the East Bay Ballet Theatre in Albany, California, and then went on to teach for Miss Penny's in Castro Valley. There she and Penny Tomasello founded the Valley Dance Theatre in 1980. Along with directing and teaching for the Valley Dance Theatre, Betsy is the choreographer for all Livermore High School musicals and the tuba player for the Livermore-Amador Symphony.

Don Adkins—Conductor

Dr. Don Adkins has taught music in the Santa Cruz area, primarily at Cabrillo College, for more than 35 years. He has music degrees from Western Oregon State College in music education, the University of Idaho in composition, and the University of Missouri at Kansas City in orchestral conducting. Don has taught for both public schools and organizations such as the Cabrillo Youth Strings. He conducts the Cabrillo College Community Orchestra, performs as a piano accompanist, music directs for musical theater, and is the music director at his church. He was a conductor of the Livermore-Amador Symphony's summer youth orchestra for ten years, from 2016 to 2025.

Queen Over Jacks Quartet—Singers

Queen Over Jacks is a barbershop quartet, named during a performance at a poker party by an audience member! Kristen Taylor, Todd Plantenga, Steve Huskins, and Dwight Lang have enjoyed singing together for eight years, through the quartet and their association with the Devil Mountain Barbershop Chorus in Walnut Creek. They have performed at numerous public and private events throughout the East Bay, including for the U.S. Coast Guard in Alameda and as the presenters of singing valentines. They sing familiar favorites, including show tunes, gospel, do-wop, country, rock, patriotic songs, and of course Christmas music! Feel free to check them out on Facebook at facebook.com/queenoverjacksquartet.

Roberto Vega Ortiz—Guest Artist

Roberto Vega Ortiz began his dance training at Taller de Bailes LeDaph at age 14. He also studied at Escuela de Ballets de San Juan, Conservatorio de Ballet Concierto de Puerto Rico, and Escuela Especializada en Ballet Julián E. Blanco, all in his native Puerto Rico. He took summer courses at, for example, the Joffrey Ballet School and San Francisco Ballet School. In 2015, he studied at the Miami City Ballet School, and in 2016 he joined the Nashville Ballet. In 2017, he joined Les Ballets Trockadero de Monte Carlo and toured internationally, performing female soloist and principal roles on pointe. A guest dancer with various companies, Roberto was also a cast member of The Phantom of the Opera in San Juan, Puerto Rico, and a dancer with Diablo Ballet. He also is the co-founder, artistic director, and artist of Ballet22.

Spring REP 2026 May 23 at 7pm and May 24 at 2pm

In May, the Valley Dance Theatre will tell a story, well, really three stories, all to live music. First, Prokofiev's iconic Peter and the Wolf will delight of children of all ages. Act 1 will close with Arthur Sullivan's Pineapple Poll, a rousing romp of sailors and their girls and unrequited love, all with a touch of humor. Act 2 will open with Gershwin's unforgettable An American in Paris, featuring tapping gendarmes, the baker and his tart, and the dog walker with her poodles, plus American and French couples falling in love. Red, White and Blue will honor the five branches of the military and their official songs. John Philip Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever" will bring Spring Rep 2026 to a stirring close.
